EPSS FP7: Method of calculating indirect costs - Windows...

https://www.epss-fp7.org/epss/indirectCostsInfo.html

Method of calculating indirect costs

Indirect costs are all those eligible costs which cannot be identified by the participant as being directly attributed to the project but which can be identified and justified by its accounting system as being incurred in direct relationship with the eligible direct costs attributed to the project. They may not include any eligible direct costs.

They shall represent a fair apportionment of the overall overheads of the organisation.

In FP7, they may be identified according to one of the following methods:

- Real indirect costs: Real indirect costs incurred in direct relationship with the direct eligible costs attributed to the action calculated using an analytical accounting system
- Simplified method: A participant may use a simplified method of calculation of its full indirect eligible cost at the level of its legal entity if it is in accordance with its usual accounting and management principles and practices. Use of such a method is only acceptable where the lack of analytical accounting or the legal requirement to use a form of cash-based accounting prevents detailed cost allocation. The simplified approach must be based on actual costs derived from the financial accounts of the period in question.
- Standard flat rate: A participant may opt for a flat-rate of 20% of its total direct eligible costs, excluding its direct eligible costs for subcontracting and the costs of reimbursement of resources made available by third parties which are not used on the premises of the participant.
- Special transition flat rate: Non-profit public bodies, secondary and higher education establishments, and research organisations and SMEs, which are unable to identify with certainty their real indirect costs for the project, when participating in funding schemes which include research and technological development and demonstration activities may opt for a flat-rate of 60% of the total direct eligible costs¹ excluding costs for subcontracting and the costs of reimbursement of resources made available by third parties which are not used on the premises of the participant. If these participants change their status during the life of the project, this flat

For the proposal content (Part B) you must use exclusively PDF ("Portable Document Format", compatible with Adobe Acrobat Reader version 3 or higher, with embedded fonts). It is recommended not to upload very big files. To keep sizes down avoid colour and unnecessary high resolution pictures and graphs. The average size of a research proposal is 2MB (less for mobility actions). You should aim to restrict your proposal to under 3MB, and under no circumstances try to upload a file larger than 10MB.

Proposal submission

Modifications to proposals are possible at any time before the deadline, also after an initial submission. The latest version available at the deadline is considered as the one submitted. For continuously open calls, this procedure applies to the intermediate closure dates. This means that, at each intermediate closure date all proposals with the status "Submitted" will be locked and evaluated and there will be no more possibility to modify them. When resubmitting you automatically accept to withdraw the previously submitted proposal by replacing it with the new version.

By submitting this proposal the co-ordinator confirms that all necessary internal authorisations have been obtained by all participants in order to permit your organisation to submit it and that the submission complies with any internal requirements of the participants' organisations relating to the submission of such proposals. In doing so the co-ordinator accepts that the Commission takes no responsibility for the evaluation or selection of any proposal which subsequently proves not to have been authorised by the competent officials of the participants' organisation (s).
